

Our vision

We envision a future where children and young people's learning is holistic and wide-ranging; that children can be playful and curious about the world around them and grow into resilient, reflective and responsible young people; who can access welcoming, supportive and trusted communities to broaden their horizons and inspire growth.

Who we are

We support children and young people living in Bristol, South Glos and the surrounding areas, providing engaging play and youth work embedded in communities.

We also provide personalised part-time and full-time alternative education environments for children and young people to overcome barriers to engagement and learning.

What we do

At LPW, we provide safe, emotionally supportive and enriching spaces where children and young people can: build trusted and trauma-informed relationships; grow in confidence and independence; overcome challenges; and have ownership of their learning and future.

Our values

We are:

- Inclusive: We celebrate and embrace, diversity and ensure everyone is seen, heard and valued.
- Collaborative: We work in partnership alongside children, young people, families, communities and other professionals to achieve success.
- Innovative: We are bold and creative in our approach to inspire confidence, independence and free-thinking.
- Compassionate: We are trauma-informed - offering safe, emotionally available spaces for children and young people to learn and thrive.
- Brave: We foster strength and perseverance, even in the face of challenges and adversity.

Brand personality

Welcoming & positive; Fun & encouraging; Empowering & innovative; Empathetic & resilient; Ambitious & brave.

What it's like to work at LPW

Our staff team are our greatest asset. We work together to provide safe, emotionally supportive and enriching spaces where we can support children and young people. Our staffs' wellbeing is key to this, which is why all our team enjoy benefits that include:
